The Hotel CABINN Metro is located in the new region of Copenhagen called Orestad, just 5 km from Copenhagen International Airport and the city centre. The architecture of the building is designed by the Polish-American architect Daniel Libeskind, famous for his work on Ground Zero in New York. It is only a short walk from the hotel to the Belle Centre, Scandinavia's largest conference and exhibition venue. All guest rooms at CABINN Metro have a private shower and toilet, free wireless internet access, phone, TV and free coffee/tea making facilities. Breakfast is available for only 60 Dkk per person per day. Hotel Rooms: 709.... More
